“Stepping into the Wilderness” Quiet Day, 1:00 to 3:00 p.m.

When we step away from the noise of our busy surroundings, we find ourselves without our usual distractions. Sometimes, in those moments, our minds can panic and try to seek and grasp at whatever other distraction can be found. If we resist that impulse, and allow ourselves to enter into the quiet, we are able to more clearly notice that God is with us, and has been with us all of the time.

This Ash Wednesday, you are invited to join others from St. James' to begin your Lenten journey with two hours of lightly framed and guided quiet (it will begin shortly after the noon service). The theme will be “Stepping into the Wilderness.” It will be an opportunity to courageously enter into quiet stillness.
