Lent

Events and Resources for Your Lenten Journey at St. James'

REFLECTIONS ON GOD FROM THE WILDERNESS

Please Share Your Thoughts and Experiences for Lent

St. James' is sending Lenten reflections to the parish by email, written by parishioners, about experiencing God in the midst of "wilderness." Emails are sent to the parish during the 40 days of Lent. We still have room for a few more reflections!

Please submit your reflections as soon as you are able to james@stjamespotomac.org (please indicate if you'd like your reflection to remain anonymous) so we may learn from one another during Lent.

Seven Locks Ecumenical Dinner & Study Series Begins Wednesday, March 13, 6:30 p.m.

Come enjoy this annual event on Wednesday evenings in Lent with our neighboring congregations of Seven Locks Road. This year's theme is "Bridging the Gap: Overcoming Differences through Christ's Love." We'll begin with supper, worship and study on March 13 at Emmanuel Lutheran, 7720 Bradley Blvd., Bethesda. See you there!

Lent Madness is Back!

Download the bracket and other information from www.lentmadness.org. Sign up for the Lent Madness emails and vote for your favorite saints, both admirable and astonishing, as they compete for the Golden Halo.
